

we talk directly to Jesus after the consecration?

After the consecration, the priest announces, “The mystery of faith”. What mystery? The mystery of the tremendous change before us – Jesus right in front of us on the altar. We pause to speak directly to Him. This should make us pay close attention, since in the Eucharist we almost always address the Father and not the Son. The Mass is the prayer of the Body of Christ in the world to the Father through the Son and in the Holy Spirit. So, these words should make us think – about Jesus and about the reality of the consecration. The presence of our Lord on the altar provokes a response – our response is part of our personal conversation with the Lord. Let us make it from the heart! Want to know more? Our Adult Ed offerings cover this and much more!