Introductory Rites

Processional

I Know that My Redeemer Lives

I know that my redeemer lives! What joy the blest assurance gives!
He lives, he lives, who once was dead; He lives, my everliving head!

He lives triumphant from the grace; He lives eternally to save;
He lives in majesty above; He lives to guide his church in love.

He lives to silence all my fears; He lives to wipe away my tears;
He lives to calm my troubled heart; He lives all blessings to impart.

A reading from the

Book of Wisdom

The souls of the just are in the hand of God and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if in the eyes of men, indeed they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them, and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; They shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord shall be their King forever. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: Because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 23

R: The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading

Romans 5:5-11

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel

John 6: 37-40

Deacon Gary Schantz

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to the crowds:

“Everything that the Father gives me will come to me,
and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me.

And this is the will of the one who sent me,
that I should not lose anything of what he gave me,
but that I should raise it on the last day.

For this is the will of my Father,
that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him
may have eternal life,
and I shall raise him on the last day.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Preparation of the Gifts

How Lovely is Your Dwelling Place
(Randall DeBruyn)

O how lovely is your dwelling place, dwelling of the Lord of Hosts!
How we long for your house, O Lord, singing out a song of joy to the living God!

Communion Hymn

O Lord, I Am Not Worthy
(Non Dignus)

Communion Meditation

Ave Maria (Wm. Gomez)
Sam Hagan, Soloist

Recessional Hymn

Song of Farewell
(Ernest Sands)

May the choirs of angels come to greet you.

May they speed you to paradise.

May the Lord enfold you in his mercy.

May you find eternal rest.
